Today in Rome, the Holy Father will canonize Cardinal John Henry Newman. He was born in London on 21st February 1801 and grew up as a member of the Church of England. In his youth he experienced a deep religious conversion and resolved to spend the rest of his life in the pursuit of holiness.

In 1825 he was ordained as an Anglican minister and in 1828 became the Vicar of the University church of St Mary in Oxford. Here he became a leading light in the Oxford Movement, seeking to recover elements of catholicity within Anglicanism. In 1843 he resigned his living at St Mary's and retired to a converted stable block at Littlemore just outside Oxford, to think and pray. He was joined there by a number of his young followers and together they lived an austere semi-monastic life. Late in the evening on 8th October 1845, an Italian priest, Father Dominic Barberi (now Blessed), came to Littlemore. For several hours he heard Newman's first confession and the next day he was received into the Catholic Church.

In 1846 Newman went to Rome to study for the priesthood and was ordained priest there in 1847. He then returned to England where he founded the first English Oratory in Birmingham in 1848. Meanwhile Father Wilfred Faber had also converted from Anglicanism and he and several other converts joined Newman's new Oratory. Faber was later sent to establish the Oratory in London in May 1849.

Newman was always a prolific writer of letters, sermons and articles and this continued throughout his life. His work was sometimes misunderstood and a number of projects that he was asked to lead or support seemed to come to nothing. At one stage he was even wrongly suspected of doctrinal unorthodoxy. At times he must have felt that he was living under a cloud of disapproval.

In 1879, at the age of seventy-eight, the cloud was lifted when Pope Leo XIII made him a Cardinal. Newman chose as his motto the words "Cor ad cor loquitur" (heart speaks to heart). He lived out the rest of his days, quietly and prayerfully still writing, at the Birmingham Oratory. He died on 11th August 1890 and a crowd of nearly 20,000 people attended his funeral.

In 1958 the cause for his canonisation was opened. In 1991 the Vatican's Congregation for the Causes of Saints declared that he had practiced the virtues to an heroic degree and he was proclaimed 'Venerable'. In October 2005 the postulator of the cause announced a potential miracle - Jack Sullivan, a Catholic deacon in Massachusetts, USA, attributed his recovery from a crippling spinal cord disorder to Newman's intercession in heaven. On 19th September 2010 during his visit to the United Kingdom, Pope Benedict XVI beatified him declaring him 'Blessed John Henry Newman.'

A second miracle at the intercession of Blessed John Henry, this time the healing of a pregnant woman from a grave illness, was approved on 12th February 2019. Following this Pope Francis announced that he would canonize him on the 13th October 2019.

The ceremony can be viewed on the internet via the Vatican's website (See below)

SPAM E-MAIL'S

The dioceses have had reports of people and parishes receiving Spam e-mails claiming to be from their parish priest and even the Archbishop. They are all coming from the email address orlandi613@gmail.com. Please be wary of any emails that claim to be from the parish/priest and asking for money or a favour as this is a typical spam message.
