Today is World Mission Sunday – ‘Together we are Mission’

This is a day, when the Holy Father invites all Catholics to contribute to a special collection for Missio, his charity for world mission. Please support Missio in helping missionaries to work alongside communities throughout the world - that are poor or in need, regardless of their background or belief. Join in on this special day, that unites Catholics all over the world in prayer and celebration of our Church's mission to share God's love with all creation – ‘Together we are Mission’.

This year the focus of the appeal is the missionary work of the Church in India.

Every single day countless young girls are exploited. Often stolen from their families or sold against their will, these children become trapped in lives of poverty and despair. In India, child trafficking and child labour is the reality for around 12 million children. This statistic is staggering! However it would be far worse without the presence of the Catholic Church. For decades, your support of Missio has enabled local communities to work hard to rescue those suffering and in need.

Sr. Clara from India has dedicated her life to educating vulnerable young girls, giving them the skills to break free from exploitation and abuse. Through their devotion and faith, the Sisters help the children to see their worth as a beloved child of God - ‘We always give them confidence that Jesus loves them.’

Once rescued, the girls can stay in a loving, safe home, where the Sisters provide them with education, medical care, spiritual formation and counselling. Two examples are Vandoosha and Shorti. When Vandoosha was five years old, she was sold to be a domestic worker. She was then sold again and this time her cries of distress were overheard. The local authorities rescued her with the aid of Sr Clara. Shorti does not know what her parents named her, or how old she really is. She was stolen from her family at a young age and put to work begging at a busy train station. She is another of the children that Sisters at Marialaya have rescued.

Eleven years have passed since the Sisters brought both Vandoosha and Shorti into their loving care. Today, when they are asked what Sr. Clara means to them, both girls can express it in just a few words: ‘Mother. She is our mother.’

Missionaries like Sr. Clara are able to continue to reach out to the most vulnerable people in their communities. This work is the heart of mission – bringing the light and hope of Jesus to everyone, regardless of their background or belief.

This World Mission Sunday, please join with Missio to help missionaries rescue more vulnerable children. You can give a child a new home, show them how much God loves them and change their life forever. By supporting Missio, you play a valuable part in creating a vibrant Catholic Church for the future.
