The Lamp on Our Lady's Altar this week is burning for

Peter Russell

The Lamp at St. Anthony's Shrine is burning for

Michael Pearson

Today we especially 'remember' those who have given their lives, through war, in service of our country. They left home and family to go to foreign lands in the search of justice, freedom and peace - the effects of which we feel in our society today. The world could have been a very different place for us without their sacrifice, which cannot and should not be forgotten.

The memories we recall this Remembrance Sunday should spur us forward in the search for true harmony and peace throughout the world. As the Lord commanded the apostles to "Do this in memory of me" we gather this day praying for the graces of the great sacrifice of Calvary to engulf the whole world that we may live in the harmony for which Christ prayed and to our fallen we say -

"We will remember them".

AID TO THE CHURCH IN NEED - REDWEDNESDAY 27th NOVEMBER

'RedWednesday' is the time for people of all faiths, and no faith, to come together in solidarity for Christians and others who are oppressed, forced from their homes, rejected from education and jobs and very often killed just because of their religion. For too long the West has stood by and done very little for the many, many people who are imprisoned, tortured and killed for their religious beliefs.

There will be a procession from Parliament Square to Westminster Cathedral at 6.30pm followed by a liturgy in the Cathedral. See the poster in the porch for more information or go to
